New Shadow Cabinet told to ‘earn it’ for Queensland

Friday, 15 December 2017

Liberal National Party Leader Deb Frecklington today unveiled her new Shadow Cabinet.

“When elected Liberal National Party Leader three days ago, I said Tim and I would push the reset button,” Ms Frecklington said.

“Today, I take the first step by unveiling our Shadow Cabinet to keep Labor to account and that will work their butts off to earn back the trust of Queenslanders.

“It is a mix of experience and new faces.

“I have given them all one message – earn it.

“Earn the trust of Queenslanders.

“Earn the respect of Queenslanders.

“I have communicated to my new team, my first priority is to unite Queensland with a team that represents all of Queensland.

“We need to end Labor’s division between South East Queensland and the rest of the state.

“The other priorities are tackling ICE, creating jobs and busting congestion by building more infrastructure, delivering better services and taking action on the cost of living.

“This is the team that will hold the Palaszczuk Government to account and earn back the trust and respect of Queenslanders.”
